BROCKTON MAN ARRESTED ON CRACK COCAINE CHARGES

BROCKTON – State Police and Brockton Police arrested a Brockton man this morning on charges he was allegedly selling crack cocaine out of his apartment, Plymouth County District Attorney Timothy J. Cruz announced today.

James Gomes (DOB: 06/11/86) of Brockton, is scheduled to be arraigned today in Brockton District Court.

During the month of August, Brockton Police and State Police assigned to the Plymouth County District Attorney's Office conducted an investigation into the distribution of crack cocaine in the City of Brockton. As part of their investigation, Brockton Police made a series of controlled purchases of crack cocaine and determined that James Gomes (DOB: 06/11/86) was selling the substance out of his Sawtell Avenue apartment.

This morning at 6:00 a.m. Brockton Police and State Police executed a search warrant at the Sawtell Avenue address where they seized an amount of crack cocaine that was packaged for distribution along with other items related to narcotics sales and Gomes was placed under arrest.

Brockton Police and State Police assigned to the Plymouth County District Attorney's Office handled the investigation.
